Introducing the newest addition to our Retro range - the leopard print collection! On the first of April, we teased an eye-catching collection on our social media that adds a touch of the wild to your kitchen. From toasters and kettles to our trusty coffee machines and even a slow cooker, each item in this range is adorned with a bold and beautiful leopard print pattern that is sure to make a statement in any kitchen. We really got this print spot on.

Of course, this collection was an April Fool's, but that didn't stop people from absolutely loving it. One response was 'please bring out this range' with another agreeing saying 'I would buy this'.

“ PLEASE BRING OUT THIS RANGE ”

It wasn't to everyone's taste though and if you've been with us for a while you may have expected a trick like this from us, 'people are only just getting over the cow print come on guys'. Sorry not sorry!

A Delicious Take On Garlic Bread

ON THE BLOG!

There are few things better than garlic bread oozing with melted cheese – and people are now drooling over another variation of the classic. In this version, the garlic bread element is replaced by crumpets.

The culinary genius behind the mouthwatering concoction is TikToker @foodmadesimple, who has nearly 1 million followers on the platform. In the clip, he takes five crumpets, cuts them into quarters and arranges them in a baking dish. Next, he coats them in a whole lot of melted garlic butter and piles the cheese on top. Don't be stingy on the garlic and cheese – in this case it's certainly the more the better. Then, all you have to do is stick it in the oven (or air fryer!) for around 10 minutes until the cheese is melted and the crumpets are a golden brown colour. Why didn't we think of this before? The airy texture of crumpets is perfect for drenching in garlic butter and cheese. So, we're off to buy some crumpets, garlic and cheese. Food heaven!
